THE PREFACE.

TO all true Protestant and Christian Readers, into whose hands this little piece may come; I desire to let the World know that it is not for the sake of any Interest I have in the World, or in any Sect or Party of People, this day in the present Age, that engages me to this present Affair: No, let the World know, that I knew long since, upon whom I have cast the infinite weight of both my Soul and Body, viz. upon Jesus; that is, upon him, as fulfilling, and being fulfilled in his mediatory *person, the whole Law of works ; and for justification of Faith and Love, for me, and for all his Elect that were given to him by the Father before the world was. The Truths once delivered to the Saints, declared in the Scriptures of truth, witnessed by the Fathers and Sons of the true Protestant Church, since the Apostles days, before the Supremacy of the Pope of Rome to the five or six Centuaries, though then opposed by the Arrians, Nestorians, Sabellians, Manichees, and others, and since by the Papists, the Head of Antichrist ; and by the Kenites, and pretending Reconcilers of Protestants and Papists : I mean the Bridge-makers for a passable way as well as persons, received their Being in the world, are the alone and only Motive that carries me into this Affair at this juncture of time: And particularly, by providence, hearing this man, for whom this Sheet was printed, by name Mr. Francis Smith, a Stationer in London, preaching up at the Field Town, in the County of Oxford, this Novel, Papistical Doctrine of Arminianism, Free-will, and General Redemption, and Conditional Election in time, under the notion of an Anabaptist, or Catapædobaptist, if you rather please; and having then opposed him, as to his Doctrine, and finding him and his Adherents stubborn and Heretical, and withal scattering the Poison of their Doctrine in this Sheet, under the notion of a Confession of their Faith, to the subversion of the unsettled and ignorant people, I, as a Servant to the royal truths of my Soveraign Lord Christ, and for the better information of his Elect, have, according to my poor abillity, cast in this Mite into the Corban, as my Testimony to him and his truth, in this lowering yet Evening Tide of Antichrist. The Apostle Paul is my President, Gal. 2. 5, 6, who would not give place for an hour to the Enemies of the Gospel, neither did he respect any mans person; though they seemed by their external deportment and manners to be some body in the peoples Eyes. My Judge is Christ my Soveraign; ons, when he shall again descend harsh, or Unchristian, let them know 'tis not the Sword of the Flesh, but that of the Spirit I fight with. The Prophet Isay call'd them in his days dumb Dogs; the Apostle of the Gentiles, Hereticks; and I call but all such as come forth in any of the VVhores Trinckets but barking Dogs, who are far worse than those dumb Dogs and Hereticks were, because they are stubborn Promoters of the Papal Doctrines, though not of Popish Ceremonies, according to that ancient definition of Heresie; by that ancient witness of truth Bishop Grosthead, once of Lincoln: Heresis est sententia contraria sacre scripturæ palam docta pertinaciter defensa. And as it was said by the Protestant Divines of Germany concerning Grotius, Quod Hugo Grotius papizat; so say I of all these who promote the same.

The PREFACE.

Doctrines as he did: who instead of flying out of Babylon, as the Holy Ghost exhorts, Rev. 18. 4, 5, 6. they hover under her enchanting skirts; to whose charge, if they repent not, all the Blood of the Martyrs will be laid, as well as to the direct Papists, when the Lords time shall be accomplished. And till they have answer'd Jewel, White, Willet, against the Papists in the very same points, they say nothing against me or my Animadversions, though they attempt a Reply. And so Reader Farewel. ANIMADVERSIONS and CON- SIDERATIONS upon an Heretical, Catabaptistical, Pelagian, Arminian, Papistical Sheet, lately published, entituled, A Confession or Declaration of Faith; lately presented to King Charles the Second: Printed for one Francis Smith; which, because the Doctrine therein contain'd is partly Papistical, and partly mixed with the Ingredients of of Quakerism; as Free-will, General Redemption, and falling away from Christ, and such like Trash, against the Doctrine of the Gospel, primarily taught by Christ and his Apostles, and secondarily witnessed to by the Protestant Christian Di-vines of all Ages, and by the Martyrs in the past times of Popery; I think fit to declare to the World, for the sake of Gods Elect, chosen in Christ, by the good will and pleasure of God alone, from before the foundation of the World, to Eternal Salvation by the Transaction of their sins by the Father on Jesus, and the free imputation of the Righteousness of the Law, fulfilled in him to them, which they do in his time, when he gives them Faith, receive it by Faith alone.

L E T me tell you, you Arminian, Pelagian, Papistical Baptists, are not built on the Foundation of the Prophets and Apostles, Ephes. 3. but upon the Foundation of the Papists, and Antichrist; for the Papists are true in nothing, but in the Doctrine of the Trinity, as said Mr. Philpot, Martyr; and dying men, especially Martyrs, should be believ'd. You peep your Heads out to shew your Antichristian Horns, because you are in hope, that some lately honoured at the Stern, may countenance your Sect, as being inclinable to the same Opinions, as being newly whasted (by Divine Providence) from the Transmarine Territories of Papistry, upon the Christian Protestant Shores; who yet, it is yet to be doubted hath too much of the Pelagian dust of S. Omers cleaving to his feet, or shooes: But this will fall you in the day of the Lord, when the true Jesus, Son of God, and Son of Mary, High-Priest, Prophet, and King, in one Person, will plead his own Truths, that you, and such as you, have most abominably abused and belied.

Your first Article professes Faith in one God, and the Father, of whom are all things; which the Turk and Mahometans do acknowledge as much as you, or more. See the Alchoran, Chap. 17. entitled, Of the Voyage by Night; and Chap. 18. called, the Chapter of the Cave, 27, 28, 29, 30 lines.

To the second, that all the misery, and death, and condemnation of the World, brought in by the fall of the first Adam, is but temporal, corporal, and only as to this life, is a Lye against Scripture, Reason, and the Authority of good and approved Authors. This Opinion was held by Jacobus Faber, and many other Papists.

Papists, but not by Bellarmino, Gen. 2. In the day thou eatest, thou shalt die the death; is a Hebrew phrase, signifying, eternal and temporal death, moriendo morieris, Eph. 2. 23. Rom. 8. 6, 7, 8. Rom. 5. 6. 8. Rom. 6. 23. Rom. 7. 14. 17. 20. 23. Rom. 5. 14. to 21. Ezek. 16. 3. to 9, 10. Mat. 25. 41. Gal. 3. 1. the wages of all sin is death in that kind, that the gift of God is life: But the gift of God is life eternal to all Abraham's Seed; ergo, the wages of all sin is eternal death, by the Rule of compar. contrar. My Authorities are Calvin Instit. lib. 2. cap. 1, 2, 3. the Assemblies Catechism, Quest. 19. and Answer to it: Dr. Willet against Papists in his eighteenth general Controversie read at large, besides Luther, Zuinglius, Melancthon; and more Ancient, Augustine, Hierom, Chrysostom, Ambrose, Tertul. Justin Martyr.

The third Article professes General Redemption; that the Father gave Christ out of his love to the whole world, and a Ransom for all universally: wherein 1. The Fathers gift gift is diminished ; and 2. The Sons Ransom belied ; for the Father gave him to be a Propitiation for the sins of the world of the Elect, and none else ; that is, to all the Elect of Jew and Gentile : so is all taken, 2 Cor. 5. definitely ; and John 17. 6, 7. and 10. he gave him to the Sheep only, whose sins he laid on him, Isai. 53.

 6. 11. 1 Pet. 2. 24, 25. 2 Cor. 5. 21. and to whom only he gave and imputed his Righteousness, 2 Tim. 1.
 9, 10. Gal. 1. 15, 16. The Elect Jews were his Sheep ; and other Sheep I have, that is the Elect of the Gen- tiles ; and the Reprobates he call Dogs, Wolves, Lyons, &c. which he ransomed not, neither was given to ransom ; so he did more for his Elect than you acknowledge, viz. transacted and bore their sins on his own body. 2. He did it not for all, but only for them whom the Father gave to him, and him to them, Joh.
 17. 2. 6. 8. 9. 11. 29. Joh. 6. 44. 39.
 37. Joh. 10. 3. 11. 15, 16, 26, 27, 28, 29. These only by his Blood hath he cleansed in his sight, not by Water-

Water-Baptism, but by his Blood, 1 Joh. 1. 7. 9. and Chap. 5. and of this is the Water of Baptism a Figure; and by his Blood hath satisfied Justice for all their sins, past, to come, and present, and redeemed them; and of this is the Supper a Symbol or Sign, 1 Cor. 11. &c.

The fourth Article sings the same Song, wresting the word All to a false sense; that God is willing that all should come to repentance, and none should perish; and that the pardon of sins should be preached to every Creature, that none might suffer in Hell: The Word of God is belied, making it speak what it intends not, and the Gospel sophisticated: For first, the Gospel is ministerially offered to all, Mark 16.
 15. but by recommunication of the Spirit only to the Elect; Rom. 9. 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20. with 1 Pet. 3. 17.
Mat. 13. 11. To the Elect it is given to know the Gospel, but not to the Reprobate, Joh. 12. 40. Rom.
 11. 7, 8, 9, 10. And Piscator a Protestant Divine saith, Gratia offertur à deo, à deo, animo communicandi eam folis Electis hand quaque singulis.

To the fifth; I say, degrees of Christianity abstractively adapt not to the Ministry; beside, I deny you to be a Church of Christ: Ergo, have no power to give your approbation in Ordination: Beside, the Church alone, though true, cannot by Divine Authority ordain Ministers, or Commissionate them to go forth to Preach.

The sixth Article is ambiguous as most of your Preachments are, to deceive the simple, and obtain Profelites, Rom. 16. 17, 18, 19. Sub melli Hybleo venenum latet: Faith don't justifie, as an Act; nor is it the Root of Justification, as Papists say; it is Christ, and his Personal Righteousness, that justifies the ungodly, being Elect, Rom. 4. Rom. 8. 33. Psal. 32. 1, 2, 3. and they by Faith, when God gives it them, Ephes. 2. apprehend and receive this Righteousness of Christ, wrote in his Person for their justification, Rom. 8. 2. 3. Joh. 1. 12. where you say, say, Believers commit themselves to his Grace: I boldly affirm, you Arminians, Grotians, and Pelagians don't mean, by Grace, to the imputation of his Righteousness, wrought in his Individual Person for all his Sheep, and given to them for their justification, and received by Faith of them. Thus all true Protestants but you, with Bellarmino, and all the Papists, mean, that the Act of Faith, in this your Opinion and new-fangled Gospel, and Christ, with repentance and obedience to your holy Baptism, this is your justification, and the Papists, for which you will be ashamed in the day of the Lord Jesus, when the Thrones of the Kingdoms of the World shall bow before him, Phil. 2. and all that own and receive not his imputed Righteousness shall be slain, and cast in the Lake, Rev. 21. 8. and 22. 15.

The seventh Article tells a loud Lye, like his Fellows; for God gives his Spirit to his Elect Sons, before you do believe, or can believe, repent, or obey; for all these are done by the Spirit, or some Power else ; but no Power else but the Spirit can work these: Ergo, the Spirit is given first, not before their Redemption, Reconciliation, and Justification, but before the Application of this Grace ; by the Office of the holy Spirit, this Grace is revealed, received, and applied to the Elect only, Gal. 4. 6. Col. 2. 10, 11, 12. Joh. 14. 15, 16. Chap. 1 Cor. 2. 10, 11, 12. Rom. 8. 15, 16. Ephes. 1. 13. 18, 19, 20.

The eighth Article is swoln big with the poyson of Sophistication and Contradiction; and that because you hide your Errours under a disguise, like a bitter Pill wrapt up in a little Sugar, or Wormwood-seeds in Plumbs, to deceive the simple, and Children; for you would make us believe you own the Decrees of God, while indeed you deny them. 2. A contradiction, because if they be Elected for foreseen Faith, works, or repentance, then it is not of meer mercy, and good will, and nothing in the Creature but but sin : So that the second part of your Article contradicts the first, and the first is sophisticated : You say, God Elects from the Foundation of the world such as believe ; that is, when they believe he Elects them, that is, he hath decreed to Elect all that believe ; but he Elects them as meer sinners, and because he Elects them they believe, and not that he Elects them because they believe.

The ninth is like his Fellows, full of falshood, for they were ordained to Condemnation before they were ungodly men, and because of their Reprobation became ungodly men, because they were afore ordained to destruction ; Περὶ γεγραμμένους before decreed, or afore written for destruction ; and therefore became ungodly.

The tenth lies like the father the second Article. For Adam's fall brought in Eternal deaths as well as Temporal, I said afore ; and if all are under that Condemnation, Rom. 5. 16, 17, 18, 19. Ex. 16. Rom. 6. 21.

See Doctor Willet's 81 Gen. Controversie against Papists; the Elect have their Sins transacted on Christ, and his imputed Righteousness covering them, and the Spirit of Christ in his time converting them to it, and the rest, great and small, are blinded and damned, Ro. 11. The whole Law broken by Adam, and his Posterity in him, comprehends both Faith, and perfect, and sinless obedience; which Covenant being broke, he brought both himself and posterity under Condemnation Rom. 5. 18, 19. temporal and Eternal; for such is the Wages of Sin, Ro. 6. 21. and lying under the breach of the whole Law of God, are eternally condemn'd, except they be elected, called, justified and sanctified freely by his Grace, Rom. 8. 29, 30, 31.

 10. Lament. 1. 12. And if Christ's Sufferings were such, then Adam's fall must procure such : But this Hellish Doctrine denyeth both : By this Doctrine the Covenant of Grace was made since the fall of Adam, and not from Eternity, as the Scripture inculcates, Titus 1. 1, 2, 3. Pf.
 89. and Zach. 6. 13. 2 Sam. 23. 5. and then the Covenant of Grace is but a new Covenant of Works, viz.
 Faith and Obedience ; as if Faith was not included in the Covenant of Innocency, and fulfilling the conditions of the pardon of Sin in the Gospel, upon pain of Eternal Damna-tion ; so that by this Doctrine the new Covenant of Grace is a thousand times more bondaged, servile, and

and legal than the Covenant of Innocency : For the forfeitures of that, say they, was but bodily and temporal, and so was Christ's death that satisfied for it : But the forfeitures of this new Covenant of Grace, according to their Doctrine, is Spiritual and Eternal Damnation, and no help or satisfaction neither : in the Covenant of Innocency Christ made up the breaches, but the breaches of this Covenant of Grace we our selves must make up by our Free-will, Faith, Repentance, and Obedience, or else perish eternally : And from the Pelagian, Arminian, Papistical new Covenant of Grace, wherein Christ is only or chiefly an example, only by his Kingly and Prophetical Offices in Heaven, he prays for me, my Faith, Victory, and Repentance ; but if I do it not, or cannot, his Prayer is in vain. And as for his Priestly Office, as Dr. Hammand saith, it dyed with him : For it was only to remove the Covenant of Works, which was by a temporal death easily easily removed, its forfeitures being but a temporal death ; from such a New Covenant, Lord deliver me, and his Elect, and from the Promulgators of it. Another Juggle they have is, that Election is not in the Covenant of Works, or from Eternity, but in Christ since ; that is, they that do believe the Doctrine they preach, believe, repent, obey, and be baptized ; are Elected ; and this God foresaw, and knew, and willed : And to uphold this Babel, and Whores Doctrine of Babylon, they turn upside-down the very Heart and Entrails of the whole Scriptures, to the last of the tenth Article : I say the Jews were under a Covenant of Grace, and by the sign thereof, Gen. 17. brought by Divine Command their Children into the visible Church. We are under the same Covenant of Grace, and the matter and manner of the sign was changed under the New Testament, or Administration of Grace, but not the Subjects ; for then it had been necessary that Christ should have have forbidden Infants Baptism, or John Baptist his Messenger, for Christ knew it was once commanded as the New Covenant sign; but he never repealed the Subject, nor his Messenger that came before him, or the Ministers that followed after him; Ergo, what is not repealed by Divine Institution, abides stedfast, as a Nail fastened by the Masters of the Assembly, given by one Shepherd, Christ Jesus: Therefore till the Catabaptists prove by Scripture, that Christ, or his Predecessor John Bapt. or his Successors, the Apostles, forbid the Subjects in Gen. 17. licensed, till then you do all of you shamefully beg the Question; and you shall be with your Antichristian Spirit famished for me, before you shall have a Morsel from me to feed your Heresie: wherefore leave that unlawful Trade of Begging, and work for your livings; that is, prove out of the New Testament, by Gods Word, that Infants are commanded not to be Baptized, or that Circumcision was not a Sign

Or, that Baptism did not come in the room of Circumcision; do one of these or be silent before the Lord for ever: For, because you have rent the Seal of his Covenant, God will rend you and your Sect into a thousand pieces: This will be the end of you, to perish in your own Dung, Phil. 3. Except the Elect among you, and true Converts, they only shall be preserved, and in due time come out of your Babylon, as well as Rome's, or England's Babylon.

The Eleventh Article builds up your Idol Baptism, and sets it on your sandy Foundation; for there is not one word of Teach before Baptise; but contrary, after Baptism to Teach, Mat. 28. latter end: For the first word rendered to Teach, is, in the Greek, Mathetensate, that is, Disciple all Nations. But the Question may be asked, How shall we Disciple them? the Answer is, Baptizing them, &c. then teach them to observe all things, &c. the Jews nant of Grace be the same, as it is, for there is no new thing sub Caelis; and our Baptism now doth Baptize into the whole Body or Church Universal, 1 Cor. 12. 13. that is, into the number of the Elect, and not into particular, visible Congregations, and when they do actually believe, then are they Members of the visible, particular Church, actual Members; and then, as Baptism, shadowed out their cleansing by Christ's Blood, and the Application of it to them in the Womb by God. So doth the Supper, when they believe, figure out Christ's Redemption and Satisfaction to them by his Blood, Joh. 6. ult. 1 Cor. 11. ult. And though the Sacraments be distant in Administration and Respect of time, yet Satisfaction, Redemption, and Cleansing, was actually done at once for all the Elect by Christ, John 18. 34, 35. with 1 Jo. 5. 6, 7, 8. and yet, I say, the Elect have their cleansing sealed and signed Externally, (for the Internal Seal is the Spirit, Ephes. 1. 13. Rom. 4.) mostly in their Infancy, because God imputes Christs Righteousness to them in their Infancy, Rom. 9. 10, 3. Gal. 1. 16. Mat. 19. 14. And because Baptism is not a Communion Sacrament, as the Supper is, 1 Cor. 11. hence they did not eat the Pascal Lamb, till they were able to stand on their Feet, eat bitter Herbs, and walk, Exod. 12. for the Pascal Lamb, under the old Administration of Grace, was the Sign of Christ's Death for the Elect, as the Supper is now, both figuring out the same thing; to wit, the pardon of Sins by Christs bearing them, as the Lamb taking them away, John 1. 29. only that figur'd out the actual time of discharge of the Elect to come, but the Supper that the actual time is past, Heb. 9. 29. and ch. 10. 14. Neither is Baptism the way of making visible Churches, but Profession of the true Faith of Christ, Rom. 10. 11. 10. 12. Gal. 3. 26. By Faith, and not by Baptism; you make Baptism your Christ, and so slight the Lords Blood, by placing life in the Figures.

But the Apostle, when some in his time, see 1 Cor. 1. did too much magnifie it, he thanked God that he he had not Baptized but a few Families, and tells them, His Mission was to preach the Gospel: A more weighty Affair than administering Baptism, though both belonged to him. The Apostles never preached up Baptism, as the Catabaptists do: And though Circumcision did make Disciples of right, yet it did not make them visible and actual Disciples, but Faith in God's Covenant, and the eating the Pascall Lamb was a, or the, visible Communion, as the Supper is now to professed Believers. You belie the word of God to prove your own Heresie. For this you must answer one day; mark it, Generation was not the way of the Jews, intromitting Church-Members, or making them. It was the knowledge of God's gracious Covenant, Gen. 15. 6. Faith in Christ, as now. Christs Priestly Office took away the Sins of the Elect under the old Administration or Testament, as well as now under the new. The Covenant was and is substantially and formally the same, only differs diathetically, and by way of Administration, Heb. 8. Jer.

 not the New Testament or Adminithe Gospel ; calling Faith, Repento them as Fruits of the pardon of Sins, not procurers ; and rejecting the imputed Righteousness of Christ, as Papists do, and make the Acts of your Faith to justify you, which is full of Sin, yea full of Errour and Heresie ; and therefore your Righ-

 Rom. 8. 29

There were never but two Covenants, for Matter and Form, that of Works, and that of Grace, directly opposite one to the other. The Covenant of Works was never by Divine Institution established to men since Adam's fall; but immediately taken up by Christ, the Elects Surety, and laid on his Shoulders, Isay 9. Being freely wrought in and by him for them, is a Covenant of Grace to them, but of Works to Christ; who obtained all by his Works for them. This Covenant of Grace hath two Administrations; one under the Old Testament, before the Law at Horeb, and after the Law to Christ's time in the Flesh: Then began the New Testament and Administration of Grace to the Elect; more glorious by far than the other for Administration; though in respect of the very Substance of the Covenants, the Stipulator and Mediator Christ, who undertook it for them, the Father gave him from Eternity, Titus 1. 1, 2. 2 Tim. 1. 9, 10. Rom. 8. 29, 30, 31. Psf. 89. Isay 53. 6.

Zac. 9. 11. and 6. 14. In that of Works in Paradise, there was Faith and perfect Obedience, but no Repentance, Confession, or Sorrow of Sin, or new Obedience was admitted in that; but in that of Grace, there is Faith, but different from that Faith in the Covenant of Works, and new Obedience and Repentance, Confession and Sorrow for sin admitted of none of these, but to formally justify, only Faith in Christ receives justification, and Repentance, and New Obedience follows as fruits of Faith, and of the pardon of sin, which fundamentally hangs on Christ's bearing sin away, and satisfying for it once for all. Neither doth our Faith, or Repentance, or new Obedience, make us Righteous, but Christ's Righteousness, fulfilling the Covenant of Works in his own person, and imputed to us, and received by Faith, as given of God for that purpose, Ephes. 2. 5, 6, 7. Neither is our Repentance, or Confession, or New Obedience, or sorrow for sins committed mitted any part of our Righteousness before God, (but as to man) being wrought by the Spirit of Christ in us; follow the pardon of our sins, and our being made Righteous; and follow Faith also in this administration of Grace publickly, Gal. 3. and are not the Grounds or Causes of pardon or Receivers, but the absolute Fruits and Effects in the Elect believing. Besides: The Law at Ho-reb was to the Jews a conditional Covenant for Temporal Blessings, and being broke, incurred Temporal Cursings; which, as such a Covenant, expired when Christ came, and the Pædagogy of the Jews ceased; only the Law, as in the Spiritual Power, of it, as a demonstrative Law in the hand of Christ and the Spirit, to humble the Elect, and make them sensible of their condition and misery, by the fall from the Covenant of Works in innocency, as in Adam, the only Hole at which all Curse, Wrath and Misery, Spiritual and Temporal entred, Rom. 5. That they may fall on Christ, and at his his Feet for all Redemption and Help, out of themselves; thus the Law continues still, and for want of this Spiritual Ax, Mal. 4. to cut down and humble you, that you may appear as nothing but Firebrands for Hell, it is that you and all your proud Generations have perverted Christ's Gospel, and established a new one, Gal. 1. 8, 9. the which makes your case worse, you are insensible of it, but glory and triumph in your cursed Bondage, Gal. 4. Your justification is full of sin, and you make Christ to purchase a sinful justification, Gal. 2. and so the Minister of sin you make him, while you prate that he removed the Covenant of Works, and satisfied that, and procured a Lex remediens, a milder Law; that is, that by Faith, Repentance, and Obedience, we may be justified; and so you make sin to justify; for all our Faith, and Repentance, and Obedience is but filthy Rags, Isay 64. 6. Phil. 3. and full of sin: And Christ saith, That when they have done all all that's their duty, that is to believe, to repent, and obey, Luke 17. then are they unprofitable Servants. Ergo you make sin to justify when you make Faith actually to justify. 2ly you make Christ the upholder of sin; when you, with the Papists your Brethren, make Christs Blood to purchase a sinfull justification; that is, that our Faith, and Repentance shall justify. Do you see the Pelagian, Arminian, Papistical Crew! upon what Rocks and shoals you split your selves, and all to bring in a new and another Gospel to damn you, and to exclude Christ's everlasting Righteousness, or the Law of works perfectly fulfilled in his person, to be imputed to poor, sinful, undone, ruined Worms, for their free and real justification.

Now all these Imperfections are covered to true Believers with the same Righteousness that covers their persons, Tit. 1. 15. And so both they and all their Performances and Righteousness, though in it self faulty, is accepted and sanctified, and all the sin-sinfulness of it and them covered, Pf. 32. Rom. 4. 5, 6, 7. This is a be-

Your twelfth Article is swollen big with an absolute Errour drawn from the practice of the Apostles, laying on of hands, not ministerially, as a sign of the approbation of Elders, but as an Apostolical practice, which did with them cease, as being fruitless and uneffectual, beyond their time, and unpractised in the ordinary Churches, nor at all upon any Record of Command—more than James anointing with Oyl, which Papists make a Sacrament; or Christ's washing his Disciples Feet: But because it is sufficiently confuted by Colonel Danvers, a Brother of yours in the water, but I hope in the Spirit built on better Principles, I desist to prosecute further; only I ob-

observe this by the way, That your Tribe and Fraternity, having sinned most against the Covenant of God's Grace in Christ, in founding yourselves upon Popish, Pelagian, and Arminian Principles, he hath hardened your hearts, and left you to more Horrible Errours than others.

Your thirteenth Article is double tongued——runs with the Hare and holds with the Hound; for Communion, Prayers, and use of Sacraments, are the duty of Believers——but not the immediate duty of damnable Hereticks. For first repent, and believe the Gospel, if you can, according to its primitive Institution, then those follow in order.

To your fourteenth Article I answer that you have neither the true Form or Power; and if you had the Form and not the Power, it's enough for us to depart your Tents, because they are Tents of Darkness. You have not the true Faith, ergo not the true Spirit; ergo not the the true Love, ergo not the true Power. And for your Form it is not Apostolical or truly Scriptural. Antichrist's Foundation, ever since the false Apostles seduced the Galatians, is that you are built on.

Your fifteenth Article is a Beggar too, and presupposes that which we cannot grant you, That you are the true Church and Ministers of Christ; 'Tis true, the true Ministers of Christ are to be free, and Hospitable, not like your Itinerants, who trade it in the World, and prate of what you know not, and have not observed the Apostles Rule, 2 Tim. 2. 4. and 15. 16. vers. for you do not Orthotomounta rightly cut down in twain the Law and the Gospel; preaching one to the proud, self-conceited Hypocrites, and the other the humbled Sinners; and as for Hospitality, when God shall give us Gospel-wages, 1 Cor. 9. 12, 13, 14. 2 Cor. 11. 7, 8. I trust we shall by his help do our duty in that. You preach not the true Jesus, nor the the true Gospel, as Paul did, 1 Cor. 15. 3. 17. 2 Cor. 11. 4.

The sixteenth Article opposes his Fellow afore-going, and gives him the Lye to his face, where Ministers are to be hospitable — But here you take the means of hospitality from them, and tell them, they must preach freely. You forbid Tythes, that sticks in your throats — though Christs Covenant dashed in pieces you can swallow down like the Pharisees Camel, ex ungue Leonem: But pray, where are Tythes forbid (jure Humano) as a Gospel Maintenance, if not jure Divino. I would Gospel Ministers had the Tythes by the godly Magistrates Authority, it would be no sin against Christ.

I ask you a Question, Did Constantine sin, or not sin, in giving the Tythes to the Clergy; which thing was done by him: 1. Before the Roman Antichrist arose. 2. In love to Christ, notwithstanding that Voice that is said to tell him, that he had by so doing ruined the Church.

Church. If you say it was a sin, then prove against what Law he sinned? for where there is no Law, there is no Transgression. Is it not lawful for Gospel Magistrates to provide for Gospel Ministers? if they may not, by what Law may they not? if they may, by what Law may they not give them the Tenths? 1. You'l say, perhaps, because the Tenths are the Husbandmans own; it may be when Christ hath taken the Kingdoms in his own Power, he will give it up to them; but till then 'tis in the power of Kings to dispose it as they will, and your duty to be subject to them, Rom. 13. And it is a custom, è memoria hominum, and therefore not ours, but the Princes; and may not he give it to whom he will? 2. You'l say, 'twas an Antichristian Maintenance, brought in by the Pope: This Reason is of most prevalency, could you prove it. For first, 'tis apparent that Tythes were given to the Pastors of Churches, before the Roman Antichrist rose up.

up.— So, you make Baptism of Infants Antichristian, as brought in by the Pope, which was practised from the Apostles days, and never questioned till about the fifth Cent. and then by the Insurrection of Catabaptists. See Calv. Instit. 4. lib. 15, 16. Chapters. But to close all, pray why do you bring in, and establish the capital Errours of Antichrist and Papists; as Free Will, General Redemption, falling from Grace, &c. which were established by Hu-berus, Phygins, Hemingius, Bellarmine, and many other Papists: Yet wipe your mouths, like the Whore in the Proverbs; Come, let's take our fill of love, I have offered Burnt-offerings and Peace-offerings to day: So you, Come, let's build on their Foundation, for we are baptized with Believers Baptism, and have gathered Churches, and separated from the Church of England. Don't you know that Separation is not a mark of the Spirit sufficient to carry you out, Jude Ep. 19. No, nor giving your goods or bodies to the fire neither,

 Now seeing you build upon the Foundation of Antichrist, the very Doctrines of the Whore, and cloath your selves with his Scarlet Coverings, hating all that are not of your Sect, especially of the Element of Water, and with her Whores Righteousness, viz. that of Works, for Faith and Repentance are our Works for Justification; and yet rail so egregiously against others for holding some of her Ceremonies and Figures,—which at worst can't be so bad as her Doctrine is; therefore sweep your own doors, and pluck the Beam out of your own eyes, ye Hypocrites, Luke 6. 42.

The seventeenth Article cuts its own Throat, for none are more notorious Hereticks than you Pelagi-ans, Arminians, that have drunk down the Poyson of Antichrist in these damnable Principles, which never never no true Protestant held, since the Reformation, till Arminius and Grotius in Germany, and the Socinians in Muscovia, till King James his days, who gave a breathing time to the Promulgators of it, and permitted it liberty, to the rooting it self in the Brittish Soyls. All the Martyrs died professed Enemies against it, and charged it upon the Papists, who ever owned it as the Foundation of all their Doctrine. See Foxes Martyrol.

— O ! monstrum horrendum ingens —

Augustine opposed it in the fifth Cent. wherein Pelagius first broached it in the Western World; and being banished from Rome, brought it into Britain. Not a word of it in the first four hundred years after Christ, though the Arrians, Nestorians, Eutychians, and Manichees swarmed with damnable Heresies, yet not a word of this new Gospel; though I believe the Basis of it was laid by Cerinthus and Cerbion, in Primitive times, and by the false Apostles before the Apostles death, as the Apostle demonstrates in his Epistles to the Galatians, Romans, and Hebrews. Therefore we must leave to do with you after the first and second Admonition, and reject you, as the poyson of the Church, and the greatest Enemies to Christ, his imputed Righteousness, and our precious Souls.

The eighteenth Article proclaims loudly falling away from Grace, and so speakes perfectly the Language of Rome. See Dr. Willet against Papists, in his Fifth Absurdity of General Redemption and Universal Grace, pag. 912 of his Sinopsis. This Errour was detested by the Fathers of the Primitive Times; as first Dionysius the Areopagita, in his Eleventh Epistle to Apollophanus, who as he says of himself, was 25 years of Age at Christ's death. Next Justin Martyr, 163 years after Christ, in his Explic. Quest. a Gentibus Christ. positaram, Quest. 23. and Quest. 98. he declares against it, That the Saints cannot fall away, being once in Christ. Then Irenaeus, about 182 and Joh. 12. 40. blind your eyes, and harden your hearts, lest you should be converted: For to him is all Power, and Glory, and Freedom, to do what he will in Heaven and Earth, for ever and ever, Rom. 11. last.

The nineteenth Article makes provision for the poor, and belongs to the Church-wardens and Overseers of the Poor, and to the Kings Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions, and Monthly Meetings: Nevertheless, I desire to give of my Morsel to every one that wants, and a Cup of Water to a Disciple in the name of a Disciple.

This is the Mode of all Sects and Heresies, this day in the World, to call all their own Brood Saints: so do the Papists, Arrians, Arminians, Socinians, Quakers, and Baptists. This is that Christ prophesied of, Mat. 2. 11. Loe here is Christ, loe there is Christ; but you are all deceived, for Christ is not confined to your secret Chambers, to your Societies, or to your Wilderness: he is where-ever the Faith of Christ is, which you deny, having brought another Gospel, Gal. 1. and are therefore accursed.

The twentieth Article professes the Resurrection from the Dead, which the Quakers do seem to deny; that is, that the Bodies of the Saints that died, shall rise again, and together with Christ their Head be glorified; and the Bodies of the Unbelievers be raised, and their Spirits and Souls be re-conjoyned, and suffer together with the Devils to all Eternity. But some of you Baptistical Arminians do hold, that the Soul is mortal, and dies with the Body, till the Resurrection,—contrary to the true Churches confession in all Ages, and to the Scriptures, Phil. 1. 21, 22, 23. ver. If Paul's Soul had died with his Body till the Resurrection, it had been no gain to him to die; for then there had been more gain to have lived, though in a wicked World, because here he by Faith enjoyed Christ, and his Soul lived with his Body; but when dead, his Soul also slept at least, and then he could enjoy no Communion of Christ, till the time of the Resurrection : But to die is gain ; Ergo, his Soul did live and enjoy Christ immediately after his dissolution, as vers. 23. Again, Heb. 9. after Death comes Judgment, yea a particular Judgment of the particular Soul : but if the Soul die with the body, though but for a time, then no particular Judgment, which the Scripture allows : if the Soul dies with the Body till the Resurrection, what need then is there that Christ should intercede, Heb. 9. 24. and appear there before God for the Saints, Heb. 6. 20. What does he appear for the dead ? then he need not intercede till they live, that is, till the Resurrection : Beside, Christs Argument to the Sadducees, your half Brethren, may serve to confute you, God is not the God of the dead, but of the living ; Ergo, the Souls of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all do live, though their Bodies be dead, and Christ, in respect of his Body, is the Fore-runner, because the Bodies of the Saints shall also (their Souls being reconjoyned) enter with him, Joh. 17. 24. 1 Joh. 3. 2. Phil. 3. 21. and the Souls of the damned are now in Hell, Jude Epist. vers. 7. 2 Pet. 2. 7. Ergo, the Souls of Saints are now in glory with Christ the Lord. And lastly, the old Whores Purgatory is better than your mortality, for a live Dog is better than a dead Lyon, Eccles. 9. 4.

The one and twentieth Article acknowledgeth a general Judgment, but tacitly denieth the particular Judgment, because the Authors of the Article deny the Immortality of the Soul, from the time of the death of the Body, to the general Resurrection, as I said before: It is, saith Paul, appointed once for every man to die, and after that death, to Judgment; that is, every particular man; for the Premises is particular, therefore the Assumption must be particular: the death he speaks of is a particular death; Ergo, the Judgment ment that follows is a particular Judgment; which, I say, these good Gentlemen tacitly deny: It is absurd, that the Soul should not live a moment; for if the Soul be immortal, à parte post, that is, from the instant of its infusion into the Body, it may not desist from life a moment, for then it would lose its Immortality. If we grant you Mortality of the Soul for a time, they may as well beg its Mortality for ever; for to unreasonable persons that have not the true Faith of Christ, grant an Inch, and they will crave an Ell.

But I pass to the two and twentieth Article, which is like a Jewel in a Swines Snout: What, the Kingdom of Christ set upon the Foundation of the Whore of Babylon, and Antichrist? it loaths my Soul to see it. The Reign of Christ in the Kingdoms of the World in his Saints, in a restorative Apostolical manner, before the final dissolution of the World, is and ever was the Judgment and Faith of Saints; and not only so, but at the general Judgment, when Christ shall again the second time appear, Acts 1. in that glorified body of his, and descend from the Throne, in that flesh he did ascend with, the innumerable Societies of Saints and Angels, the then living Saints being changed, 1 Thes. 4. ult. Phil. 3. ult. to meet the Lord in the Clouds of Heaven, and together with him, to return to take the Kingdoms of the World into his possession, Dan. 7. Rev. 11. and so to judge the Earth, and give his beheaded and suffering Sons, Rev. 20. quiet and peaceable enjoyment of the new Heavens, and new Earth, Isai. 63. and 2 Pet. 3. till the second and last Trumpet, 1 Cor. 15. whether numerically for a thousand years, or less, or more, may be disputable by some; but for the sum and substance, hath been owned from the very Apostles days by the Fathers; as Papias, Justin Martyr, and Irenaeus, and almost, if not all, except August. and Jerom, who yet spake very favourably of the Chy- leasts,

least, or fifth Monarchical Judgment. Licet non sequamur, tamen damnare non possumus, quia multi Ecclesiasticorum virorum ista dixerunt, Jer. 23. Ep. de regnand. secundo Christi. But to set up this glorious Truth and Kingdom of Jesus Christ upon a rotten Papistical, Pelagian, Arminian, Heretical, Antichristian Foundation, you will receive the reward of the Pharisees, Mat. 7. Lord, we have prophesied in thy Name, and cast out Devils: but, saith Christ, depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared for unbelievers.

The three and twentieth Article pleads for the holy Scriptures to be the Rule of Faith and Life; it is one thing to take the Letter of the Scripture, with the Doctrine and sense of the Holy Ghost included, and another thing to accept for our Rule the humane glosses of mens natural or deluded spirits, the latter of which is equal with their Errour that deny the regular Authority of the Scriptures: The Letter of the Scriptures, and the Spirit of Jesus, are both in Commission from Christ our Prophet to teach his people: they that exclude the Spirit, and pretend the Letter, are as unfortunate as Arminians, Socinians, Pelagians, and other Carnal Hereticks: but they that reject the Letter, and pretend the Spirit, are swallowed up of Enthusiastical Delusions, as Quakers and such like: For whom God hath joyned together, we must not dare to separate asunder, without incurring the Curse of adding or diminishing.

The twenty fourth Article pleads for Liberty of Conscience in spiritual matters: It is not to be doubted but that the Saints of God ought to have their liberty to worship God; and to hinder them, is the greatest sin, next to the sin against the Holy Ghost: but the question is, who are the Saints? 2. Whether false worshippers may have liberty from godly Magistrates? 1. Saints are either called to the Faith of Christ, and so to the profession of it; and such are visible, though they they may differ among themselves in some circumstances :

 2. Saints that are Elect, but uncalled, may be among them that are false worshippers, till called : the first only worship God truly ; because none can worship God truly, but such as truly believe in the Son of God, according to the Declaration of God, and that Record he hath given in the Word of his Son ; viz. that Christ was made Sin, and a Curse ; that he laid their sins on Christ, and so freed them, and their Curse ; and so that Righteousness of the Law fulfilled in his Person as God-man, is imputed to them for their whole Righteousness, which they by Faith alone receiving, are visible Saints, and do worship God truly : they that have not this Faith, though Angels in appearance, are but false worshippers, because the Law of Faith in Christ, is the fulfilling of the whole Law directly, the first Table towards God, Exod. 20. containing first four Commandments, that is fulfilled compleatly in

in a true Believer: and forasmuch as Love flows from Faith, so is the second Table fulfilled in a true believer; but this fulfilling the Law by Faith in a Believer, is not his Justification or Righteousness before God, for that is Christs fulfilling it in his Person, Rom. 8. 2, 3, 4. and Gods imputing it to the sinner, Rom. 4. 5, 6, 7. and Faith as an Instrument receives it, and applies it to its self: So then the Act of Faith in us doth not justifie, for then our Works and the Law would justifie, but it is still Christ alone that justifies, Rom. 8. To the second question; the Magistrate may restrain false worshippers: See Rev. 2. 20. and 2 Cor. 10. 5. the Instruments of the Church for this purpose are spiritual, 1 Cor. 5. delivering the proud and contemptible to Satan; and the godly Magistrate is but a Ruling Elder, whether in a Congregation or Nation. Let the Tares grow with the Wheat—some say is meant of secret Hypocrites: but I suppose that blood shed, confiscation, on; or any corporal persecution in this day, is not to be in any wise inflicted on deluded Consciences.

The twenty fifth and last Article, seems to contradict his Predecessor; for he allows the Magistrate to punish evil doers, and encourage the good, but his Predecessor flatly denies the Magistrate to have any thing to do with matters of Divine Worship. Now among the Pretenders to Spiritual Worship, three parts for one may be supposed to be erroneous: Now, what is more cruel than false worship? Ergo, the Magistrate is to punish false Worshipers, or else he must not punish all evil doers, forasmuch as such are the greatest evil doers in quality, if not in quantity, or number. But here lies a Falacy occult to most mens judgments; false worship, say they, consists in mode, or manner of worship, not considering that the greatest evil in worship lies in the substance, not in the mode: For false worship consists either in the substance, as in a false Faith, and false false Principle, or else in false mode, or manner of worship: the last is bad, but the former worst of all, because it is the ground of the latter; the latter, though true, is but a form of godliness, if the former be wanting. Hence all Arrians, Socinians, and the greatest part of Rattabaptists, Arminians, Free-willers, General Redemptionists, Conditional Decretists, and Quakers err in the former, though some of them may not in the latter; therefore, at best, have but a form of godliness, and from such we are commanded to turn away; for the Power consists in true Faith, and true Principles, and true love to God and Man, both arising from the diphthongued Union between the Soul, and the Man Christ Jesus, by the Spirit of the Lord; and then mode, order, and disciplinal method will be soon rectified, if the Premises be truly grounded, or else not.

The Doctrine of Quakers, Pelagians, Arminians, Grotians, Pharisees, Assidians, Papists, and Justitiaries.

Absurdities from your Errours arising, That God gave his Son for all Universally, upon condition that they believe, repent, and obey him; and so Election, upon condition of something in the Creature; either naturally, as restored by Christ at once, as the Pelagians, or else wrought in them by the Spirit, upon the assent of their free will, as the Papists, and Council of Trent, only by Gods fore-knowledge, ab Eterno; but not determination, and free act, and without considering any thing in the Creature, and particular free Personal Election from Eternity, meerly of good pleasure, without any thing in the Creature, but to be wrought in the Elected, as the purchase of Christs Blood after Election.

1. You make Christ the Minister of sin, Gal. 2. 17. for you make man's act of Faith, Repentance and Obedi-

Obedience, the formal cause of their Justification, not only without which (sine quâ non) but by which they are justified before God, and not by Christs Merits only: But man's act of Faith, repentance and obedience, is sin, and filthy rags, Isay 64. 6. Phil. 3. Ergo, that which is sin you make to justifie, and consequently Christ must be then the Minister of sin, if his Righteousness alone be not sufficient to justifie (being imputed by God, and received by Faith) for something that is sinful, and of man's, must help to justifie, and Christs Merits only make it passable and acceptable: so then Christs Merits makes sin passable and acceptable, for all our righteousness is but filthy rags, Is. 64. 6. Phil. 3. dung and dross, yea lofs, which is worse than sin; for man hath no righteousness, except it be wrought in him by the assistance of the Spirit; therefore it must be that righteousness wrought in man that the Prophet means, and the Apostles; for in him we live, move, and have our being, Acts 17. Now the major is proved by all the Testimonies and Writings of Arminians, Baptists, of that Sect, and Pelagians and Papists, and is notoriously known; The minor is made good from Isay 64. 6. and Phil. 3. Ergo the Conclusion is true, That they make Christ the Minister of sin.

The second Absurdity is, That those of this Errour do make the Souls of Men, before Christ's coming, mortal, and to dye with the Body; which is contrary to the Apostle, Phil. 1. 23, 24. worse than the Papists, their Purgatory, For a live Dog is better than a dead Lyon; and agreeable to Atheists, Stoicks, and Heathens: Besides, it makes all Christ's Sufferings on the Cross (as they say) to remove the first Covenant of perfect works, and to bring in a Lex remediens, a milder Law, to be only Temporal Punishment: For such as was our Deliverance, such was his Passion, 1 Thes. 1. ult. to deliver us from the Wrath to come, did he die. Ergo our first death is both both Eternal and Temporal. Again such was Gods promise to Adam, had he stood; such was his punishment if he fell. But if he had stood, he had life Eternal; Ergo, falling, Eternal death; besides, The wages of Sin is Death, Rom. 5. and Rom. 6. ult. and James 1. 13, 14, 15. But all man's Sin entered with his first fall, Rom. 5. 12. Ergo, the first fall is the ground of Eternal Death: And that Unbelief only is the cause of Damnation, is a Lye against the Scriptures. For 'tis true, Unbelief is the cause of all sins efficiently — And Sodom and Gomorrhah were damned instrumentally for Adultery and Fornication, Ep. Jude 2. Pet. 2. and not instrumentally and directly for Unbelief in the Son of God: Yea Originally because they were reprobated from Faith, effectual Calling, and Glory, 2 Thes. 2. 10, 11, 12. and because he did not taste death for them nor deliver them, because they were not elected, ab eterno, 2 Thes. 2.

13. 1 Thef. 5. 9. John 22. 40. Heb. 2. 9. ὅπως χάριτι Θεοῦ ἕως πάντων (v. 10. ὅς) That by the Grace of God he might taste Death for every Son.

The third Absurdity is, 2 Tim. 2.
 19. then by these mens Doctrine the Foundation of God is not sure, if the acceptance of Christ and his Merits depend on mans Free-will; for conditional is not certain, for Faith is no condition on mans part, but a Necessary Qualification wrought in the Elect to apply his Grace, and purchased by his Blood too, and wholly wrought by his Spirit in them, as effectual Calling, Rom. 9. Eph. 2. Cratia non offertur Deo singulis, animo communicandi eam, sed solis Electis. Piscator against Papists.

The fourth Absurdity is, That God's Grace is not free, which is by his word declared to be most free, Rom. 7. and Rom. 4. not at all of our works wrought in us, for then it is not free: Now Election is the top of his free Grace from whence whence flows all the other Justification and effectual Calling and Glory, Rom. 8. 29, 30, 31, &c. for if it be upon any condition in us, then it is not free ; but it is most free, Ergo, upon no condition in or by us at all, Acts 13. 48. None can believe but who are pre-ordained to live, Ephes. 2. 8, 9, 10. The Elect are created unto good works, according to his good pleasure, Phil. 2. Huberus and Hemingius, the great Jesuits, and Patrons of this Sophistry, say, non absolute statuit, sed defixit in Christo, ut credant in eo, salvi fiant ; but predestination is scientia Dei & voluntate ejus, an Act of his Will, Ephes. 1. 4, 7. as well as of his prescience, Rom. 8. Whom he knew he did predestinate ; there is his Knowledge, act of Will, and determinate Counsel ; and the word προωρισ prius definitivum prepositus, signifies an act of his will, à τίθηναι pono & πρὸς-ὅρος terminus, by his determinate Counsel ; and it was 500 years before this Errour was seen or heard in the Hor-

Horizon of the World, till in the fifth Century Pelagius preached it at Rome; and all the Fathers then, especially St. Augustine opposed it. Now saith Tertullian, id est verius, quod est prius; & id est prius, quod est ab initis, & ab Apostolis. Then in latter times, about six hundred years ago, when Popery and the Babylonian Whore brought forth her great Bastard Antichrist, she laid him on the Foundation of this Metropolitane Errour: And then in Germany, Arminius and Grotius lick'd up the Dust of the crooked Serpent; and King James tollerating it in England, then it began to spread and infect with its poysonous Breath, the Universities and Doctors of our Island, and then since our Vineyard hath been rifled and undertrod by the croaking Jesuits, they have filled every Puddle and Lake, not only Fountains and Rivers, with their Horrible Spawn.

The fifth Absurdity, that Man hath power and free will of himself self to believe, and to convert, or help to convert himself; he would have all (say they, to believe) then all have power to do it, or else God mocks them: All in that Text is not Universal, but Definitive, all the Elect of Jew and Gentile; as in 2 Cor. 5. it is used, and so is All taken; for the whole World lies in wickedness, but we are of God: there all the World is taken for a part; and Christ healed all Diseases, and John Baptist baptized all; yet Herod, and many more, were not by him baptized; all put for many, Isai. 53. 11. and Joh. 12. 40. it is apparent, that God doth harden and soften whom he will, and it is no derogation to his Justice or Mercy; for Rom. 9. he may do with his Clay what he will; and he only offers Grace universally by the external Ministry, but by the Spirit internally, only to the Elect, and none else, Acts 13. 48.

The sixth Absurdity, Man may resist his Effectual Calling if he will; and the Jesuit Hemingius brings in Mat.

Mat. 23. 33. but that Bone will not be so picked, for Christ speaks that in reference to his external Ministry and Manhood, as an external Minister ; only in that place, and so in other places too, you may find him acting the part of an external Minister, though he was God blessed for evermore.

The seventh Absurdity, is falling away from Election, and Faith, and Unbelief, the only cause of Damnation. This last I have elsewhere answered to ; but to the first part of the Absurdity, there are a Cloud of Witnesses against Saints falling away ; for Hypocrites falling away we admit readily, according to which acceptation, Heb. 6. and such like places are to be understood. Tertul. Ireneus, Justin Martyr, and Jerom ; yea all the Fathers of the first five Centuaries, yea and all the Orthodox since ; and Bernard, though living in corrupt times, in the twelfth or thirteenth Cent. on *Cant. 3. 4. v. The eighth Absurdity, is general and universal Redemption, contrary to the Scriptures, and to Joh. the 6. 37. 44. and Joh. 10. 26, 27, 29. and the whole Chapter; and Ephes.
 1. 4. 7. and to Acts 13. 48. he only Heb. 2. 9, 10. tasted death for every
 Son

Son whom, Joh. 17. the Father gave him from Eternity. If Christ died for all, he either died effectually, or sufficiently; effectually he did not, because all are not saved: sufficiently he did not, because his death only extends to them the Father gave him, who are beloved in the Womb, Rom. 9. before they have done good or evil: If he died for all, and all are not saved, then is his Death and Grace in vain; but that is against both the Honour of God, and Dignity of Christ. Compare Isai. 49. to Isai. 42.

The ninth Absurdity, that Unbelief is the only cause of Condemnation. I have said something to this before; but this is contrary to Rom. 2. 12. to Heb. 6. to Rom. 5. 12. 16. Then all the Gentiles before Christ and Faith was preached, were freed from condemnation, and all the Jews too, for ought I know, for Faith was not publickly preached to them till Christ came, Gal. 3. ult. Acts 17. 30. and 14. 16. 17. Then Infants of Unbelievers cannot be damned; contrary to Ezek. 9. for they were slain that belonged to the Parents that did not mourn for sin — and if you say that was only but a temporal death. I answer, God did not, even under that temporal conditional Covenant, destroy his own People that were saved by Christ so rashly, they were certainly the Reprobates.

The tenth Absurdity: Why did the Apostle cry, Rom. 11. 33. Oh the depths of God, &c. his Counsels, &c. if your Doctrine be the truth? there is no mystery, no depth in that, for its built on Reason, and every Creature that hath but common Reason may fathom it easily, that God gave Christ for all. 1. To put them into a condition of peace, and re-instate them in Innocency, as before the Fall, that they have naturally free will in part, or whole, to convert themselves, and to believe that Christ abolished the Covenant of perfect obedience, and purchased a milder Law, that if they obey the Command of Christ in the Gospel, and repent, repent, and be sorry for sins committed, which they all have power to do, if they will, and that but sincerely, in your sense; for in the sense of Truth, sincerely is to do the Will of God without any flaw; as the word, and the use of it, truly imports: Sincerè, id est, sine cerâ, all Honey without any dregs of wax, εὐκαιρὸς ἀκέραιος, ἀφελής; the first word is derived of εἶλη, splendor solis, and κρινομαι secerno, to do ones works in the light of the Sun. A Metap. taken from the Eagles, that try their young, by holding them up to Sun-beams, which if they can't endure, they cast them down as none of their own: it is to do all works, obedience, and repentance, & quid non, in the light of Christs Righteousness, and Justification from all sin, guilt, and wrath by Christ, and then 'tis freely done, and not for any reward; for repent, believe, obey, is to be justified, but sincerity is to do them, because I am freely justified by Christs transaction of my sins, and his perfect Righteousness ousness imputed to me : This is the mark of Popery, and Pharisaicality, which in the end will batter you all to pieces. The 2d. word is ἀκεραιότης, which signifies Innocence, and Simplicity; as it were non cornibus feriente, ex à privative, and κεράννυμι, not to stick with horns, or to be pushed at, as only the innocent perfect Keepers of Gods Law, as freed from Deut. 27. ult. for except all sin be clearly abolished, without any spot, wrath will break out : Now is your Arminian Faith, and Repentance, and Obedience so spotless, else wrath will break out upon you one day or other; and ἀφελέσθαι forum, ἀφέλωμαι aufero: as if all sin must be quite taken away, or else the work is not sincere: but Faith and Repentance is our work, because done in us, though by the Spirit. And the Apostle in 1 Cor. 2. faith, The natural man cannot receive the things of God; which it might, if yours were the things of God; for there is no Mystery in your Arminian, Pelagian, Papistical, and Socinian Doctrines, but but meerly Reason : And that word in 1 Cor. 2. may be well and properly read, the rational man, or reason it self, cannot receive the things of God, for they are a mystery ; Psenchicos Anthropolos, the rational man ; for the Soul is the subject of Reason, and before Faith is given, is rational, but not spiritual ; 'tis Faith in the Blood of Christ, wrought by the Spirit of Christ, that makes it truly spiritual. But Puck-sus the Jesuit answers for you to that place in Rom. 4. alledged, that the Apostle admired, because he knew the depths of Gods Counsels ; and that it was beneath so great an Apostle, not to know the depths of God. I leave his foolish Assertion, as not worth the answering, and refer you and all your Tribe to Doctor Willet against the Papists, in his Synopsis of the Controversies between the true Protestants and Papists, where all your Doctrine is fully answered and confuted, by irrefragable Arguments, which when you have answered, we will prepare new ones for you. D 3 The

The tenth Absurdity : if this universally be true, then all have power to believe if they will, contrary to Rom. 3. 3. then all have Faith given them, and then their unbelief resists Gods gift.

Consider which is the greatest Mystery, the Doctrine of Election and Reprobation of persons freely from Eternity, or conditional Election, upon fore-sight of works or Faith, or the Election of Seed, not persons, as the Quakers prate; Arminians and Papists would be justified by obeying Christ without them, Quakers by obeying Christ within them. What difference is here, but as much as is between an Heretick or Papist, without doors in a plain dress, and a Papist dressed up in a Mystery, or an arrant Whore in honest Womens apparel, sic etiam.

But neither will be justified by the obedience of Christ for them, that they scorn that any man should pay their debts for them, but give them but leave, and let God have patience, and they will pay him all their own way, Mat. 18.

2. Consider which is most for the glory of Gods Justice, Truth, Mercy and Love, and for exalting of Christ, and Gods free grace, for that of necessity must be the truth, and all men lyars.

3. Consider which is most for the security of Gods Children, for that is Gods great care, either to leave all men to their free will; an invention much like the Popes Purgatory, of later years, congenerated out of the drunken Pates of filthy dreamers, Jude Ep. to overthrow the Grace of God, and Righteousness of Christ imputed; for this Doctrine knows, nor owns nothing of that kind of righteousness; or to secure them in the hands of Christ without and above themselves, and he and his Spirit to do all for and in them freely.

They object, that by Jacob and Esau in Rom. 9. are meant two Nations and Peoples. I answer with Calvin, they do so; But the Apostle doth not bring them in so, but as two Persons, signifying the Eternal free Personal Election and Reprobation of God; either Gods will or mans will are most prevalent: God desires not the death of a sinner, yet they do die, because they will not believe, and repent, when the Ministry bids them; therefore to conclude, that mans is more prevalent, is blasphemy against God; but if Gods Will is, then is there eternal free personal Election and Reprobation. I demand, when did God give this grace to all men? when did Christ restore all men? if as soon as they fell in Adam, then all are conceived, and born pure; contrary to Psalms 51. to David's experience, and contrary to Psalms 58. 3. for then the wicked could not err from the Womb; and contrary to Prov. 22. 15. for then is not iniquity bound up in the heart of a Child.

Now there are a parcel of Feminine and Womanish Objections drivelling at the unclean mouths of Quaking and Arminian Jezabels; all which, were they a thousand more, and and the strongest that their Jesuitical Tribe can bring, are anticipated with an Answer by our great Apostle, Rom. 9. 19, 20. in the 19th verse is the protoplot of all Objections, and the Answer in the 20th verse.

Objeet. τί ἐπ' μέμφεσαι? Who hath resisted his Will then, if it stand in the Free and Personal Election before and without any thing in man, or of man? Why then doth he find fault? Or, Why doth he accuse us, seeing we cannot help it? Or, Why doth he expostulate the Case with men? As, Why will ye dye? &c. Ans. v. 20. μὲνεντες. Yea, say you me so! O! man! But who art thou that replyeth against God? οὐκ ἔστιν ὁ ἀνίστατο ἐν ὀνόματι τοῦ Θεοῦ. Or that judgest from the Truth against God, as the Word signifies. What will these busie Bodies and Tatlers not stick to meddle with God? Shall the Clay oppose the Potter? Shall the Ax resist the Hewer? O! monstrum horrendum ingens cui lumen ademptum! for indeed these Sophisters have but one Eye.

Object. 1. If Christ dyed for all what need preaching? Acts 13. ult. 48. He that ordained the persons, hath ordained the end for them, and the means to come, as via regnandi, to that end. Let this suffice for an Answer.

Object. 2. If there be a particular Election, then they shall be saved, and the rest damned. Answer, Sape etiam stultus opportunè loquitur, Fools may tell truth: and so in this do you.

Object. 3. This renders God unjust and unequal. And so thought the unbelieving Jews under the Law, so do you under the Gospel, and with the same Irony as the Prophet did them I answer you. Go to then, make you a clean heart, and purge away all your sins clean out of God's sight; get you a sinless Faith and Repentance; and fulfill the whole Law in your persons perfectly, and then God will perhaps receive you. But, secondly, I answer, Who art thou that replyest against God? Ob-

Object. 4. The Scriptures bids all repent and believe. Answer, It speaks especially to all the Elect of Jew and Gentile: Or ministerially to all universally, but spiritually and effectually, to the Sheep the Elect.

Object. 5. God don't desire a Sinner's death, but that he repent. Answer, He dont desire the death of Elect Sinners, nor never did; for he hath loved them with an Everlasting love, a parte ante & post, Jer. 31. 3.

Object. 6. Then is God a respecter of persons. Answer, So he is: 1. by way of decree; for he respected Abel and rejected Cain, because he had elected the one, and rejected the other; and so the person of Jacob, and hated the person of Esau; before they did good or evil. Secondly, Officially he respects mens persons; for Ministers shall shine as the Stars; and I have said, ye are Gods, to Magistrates, and not to all; and the Man is the Image and Glory of God, according according to the place and Authority of an Husband : So is not the Wife as a Wife, and a Woman : See I Cor. 11. therefore they that contend, and despise, and rule over their Husbands, are meritricious Gentlewomen, and Amazon's, terrible Monsters, generated out of corruption and the worser part of Evah; but the works done by his redeemed and justified Children—he respects not their persons for their works, but for Christs Righteousness imputed he respects both them and their works, and will reward them. Neither doth he respect the Beauty, Riches, or Wisdom of any man, so as to respect the person for those things, though good in themselves.

Object. 7. He gave himself a ransom for all. Answer, for all his Elect definitively; which shall be testify'd in their proper times, Kainois idiois, that is, when he by his Spirit calls, and doth convert them.

Object. 8. It is not our works, but Christ that works in us Free-will, Faith, Repentance, and new Obedience. Answer, Though he does, it is but filthy Rags, Isay 64. 6. Phil. 3. but Dross, Dung, and lofs, as to our justification. Nothing can justifie in any Covenant, but a perfect Righteousness performed in a perfect and righteous person, that never sinned, Rom. 8. 2, 3. Hab. 1. 13. Rom. 7.

Object. 9. This Doctrine of Election and Reprobation will dishearten people from using the means. Answer, It will not Gods Elect, but rather hearten them. Secondly, All are commanded ministerially to use the means, and have Abilities to do it; yea the blind may hear, Rom. 10. 10, 11, 12, 13. but spiritually the Spirit blows where it listeth, John 3. the Spirit is but given to the Sons alone, Gal. 4. 6. Mat. 13. John 12. 40.

Object. 10. Disobedience to the Law brought and incurred, but temporal punishments, but to the G pel Eternal punishments, Heb. 12. 2.

Ans. Disobedience to every, or to one Tittle of the Law, incurs now, and ever did, Eternal Condemnation; for the wages of Sin is Eternal death, and Sin is but a transgression of the Law; Ergo, the transgression of the Law deserves Eternal Death. But the Jews as they were under the Law given at Sinai, had a Temporal Conditional Covenant, to restrain their exorbitant Spirits, and allure them by Temporal Blessings, 1 Tim. 1. 5, 9. There were three ends of the giving the Law at Sinai. 1. To shew the dreadfulness of the fall and breach of that Law in Paradise; and that at the last Day God shall in Thunder and Flame, judge the Bodies and Souls of all that fell and are not reconciled by Christ, or covered with his Righteousness, Rom.
4. 6, 7, 8. Psal. 32. or for whom he hath not fulfilled it in his most sinless and excellent person; and so it is a demonstrative Covenant of works, Rom. 3. 19. shewing Sin, and breaking in pieces the self-conceited carnal hearts of Gods Elect; that they may receive the Grace of God in Christ by Faith, Gal. 3. 24. Isay 42. 18, 19, 20. And this was then Externally and Internally, and Spiritually and internally now, in them that are called, the use of the Law, to bring them (in the hand of Christ) to nothing but despiration, in and because of sin and self-impotency within and without, that so they may, in emptiness and poverty, receive by Faith a full and able rich Christ. Which when it hath done by Faith, the Law vanishes out of the Conscience like a baffled Giant, and retires into the Flesh to curb that to its duty; and is then a Commandment and Law of Love upon the new Covenant heart of a Believer, to freely move him, according to the External Rule and Matter of the means, to glorifie Christ in the World, 2 Cor. 3. and 2 Cor. 5. the love of Christ constrains us. Secondly, a second end of the Law at Sinai, was to be a rule rule to the Elect Believers then, to walk with God, whose Heart and Will the Law represents. And so it was put in the Ark, A Type of Christ, in whom now the Law is for a Believers Rule. Thirdly, It was given as a Temporal, Conditional Covenant, to frighten the stubborn Jews from Rebellion, and to engage them to Righteousness, a thing God did and does delight in: And so the breaches were, as in this respect, punished, but with a Temporal Death and Punishment; and the Performers with Temporal Life and Blessings; and as such a Covenant, its Epoca began at Sinai, and did end when Christ came in the Flesh. The ignorance of this distinction is the root of all Errors and Heresies: And so it was to the Jews under that Testament of Grace, as it is now to us under the new and last Testament of Grace, sealed and confirmed, not with the Blood of Creatures and Beasts, but with the Blood of Christ, the Son of God, to the ever-everlasting Comfort of the Elect Believers.

Object. 11. This Doctrine, General Redemption, sets all on work to use the means and to endeavour. Answer, Have ye never read or heard of Penelope, that famous Wife, that when her Husband was gone to the Trojan-war, and thought to have been slain, by his long tarrying, and she having many Woers perplexing her, not delighting her as they do the Ladies of these times, was spinning; for Ladies, in those more ancient times, were good House-wives, though now they are many of them Sluts, and she put back the sharp importunities of her Rivals with this defence, That when she had spun off her Web she would answer them. Now to prove her self Loyal to her Husband, and deceptious to her Rivals, she unspun in the Night what she had spun in the day. Hence we call all labour in vain, The spinning of Penelope's Web: And such is the Works and Endeavours of all ununconverted and unbelieving persons whatsoever, though not to so good an end as hers was; and this is as good an Answer as your Objection. Add to it the Testimony of Christ, Mark 7. 7. In vain do they worship me, and of Jer. 12. 1, 2.

Object. 12. What if this Doctrine be Popery, yet if it be true it is not to be rejected. Answer, Philpot, the Martyr, said to Bonner, Bishop of London, That the Papists held not one Truth, but the Doctrine of the Trinity, and yet they held this of Universal Grace; and the Words of a Dying Man are true, ut aiunt, much more of a Dying Martyr, and Christian Man.

Object. 13. 'Tis Life and Conversation that saves us and makes us like God, and not Opinion. Answer, The living Principles of the Doctrine of Christ are not Opinions but Fundamentals, preached by the immediate inspiration of the Spirit, confirmed by the ancient Testimony of the Prophets, and sealed sealed with the Signet of real Miracles; and attested to by the ancient Fathers of the first 500 years, and by all the true Churches to this day; and the Scriptures are the rule and ground of Faith, Ephes. 2. 20. But such is the Doctrine of Election, ab eterno, and Reprobation, free and personal; a good Life and Conversation built upon Christ is the fruit of Christs Spirit working love in the called Elect: But such a visible Conversation, built on the Law and mans own Righteousness, or mans Faith and Repentance, though wrought in time, is no other than the superstructures of the Scribes and Parisees of old, and of Mistical Papists. and Antichristians, the Bastards of the great Whore, in this day, Rev. 17. 1, 2, 3. Rev. 2. 26. 'Tis Christ's works, Faith, and Conversation, in him that gives life to his—— and not that wrought in them, though by the Spirit; that does but testifie that they have life in Christ to the World.

Object. 14.

14. Ob. God then made man to damn him. Answer with the Apostle; But who art thou man that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, why hast thou made me so? And beside, the Scripture saith, He that made them, will not save them, Isai. 27. 11.

15. Ob. The easiest way is the wrong, but eternal free Personal Election is the easiest. Answer, you know not what you say, no man is saved, no man believes, no man truly repents, but it cost Christ his dearest Heart-blood, and must cost us the farewell of dearest delights, and sin, and the loss of our own hearts, self, and interests, Luke 14. 28, 29, 30. 2. That that is the rationallest way, is the easiest, because all men have naturally reason; but your General Redemption, and Conditional Election, and Free Will, is the most rationallest, and agreeable to reason; therefore the easiest, and the way of God above reason, and is only fathomed by Faith; as Heb.

16. Ob. That whatever we do or sin, we shall be saved by the way of Election. Answer, that is your carping Calumny against the Truth; Gods people cannot sin that sin that God cannot or will not forgive, 1 Joh. 5. ult. There is a sin unto death, and a sin not unto death: the Elect are beloved when they do no good, or evil; they are beloved when they do evil, their persons, not their sins, I mean, Gal. 2. 20. Rom. 9. 11. and 13. 2 Tim. 1. 9, 10. and they are beloved when they do good, and they shall do good, because they are beloved, Phil. 2. 13. Heb. 12. two last verses. Again, the Truths of Christ believed and received, and not Errours, is the only ground of sobriety, righteousness, and godliness, Tit. 2. 12. and 13. 2 Cor. 5. 14. And again, pray, inspicite vobis, look upon your Peacocks feet, how much unlike the Devils Devils they are; though, like the Pharisees, your Feathers be fine; your envy, your malice, your pride, your errours, your instability, your factions and schismes, and Popish Principles, back-biting, whispering, tale-bearing, vain discourse, tatling, 1 Tim. 5. busi-bodying in other folks matters, 1 Pet. 4. 15. these, and such like, are the Ingredients that your holiness and righteousness is composed of, crying out with the Pharisees, Isai. 66. Stand far off me, I am more holier than thou art. And this is the manners of you Baptists, most of you, in this latter day, and Quakers, and others too, the more is the pity. Ob. But we love one another. Answer, O! Do you so, so do the Papists, so do the arrantest Hereticks in the World; and 'tis but self-love, and with dissimulation neither, for to prop up Self, and honour Self, and secure your Reputations, that is dearer to you than Christ's Blood, or love: Prate not thus, See you what Christ saith, Mat. 5.

Mat. 5. 46, 47. Luke 6. 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37. 1 Joh. 2. 10, 11. and Chap. 4. 20. Joh. 5. 40, 41. Measure your life by these Scriptures, and deal truly with your hearts.

Because you have Free Will, answer me these Questions.

1. Had the Angels Free Will to stand or fall? if they had, why did they fall? or did the Elect Angels stand by their Free Will, the other having no sin to tempt them to fall, more than the Elect had? and why are they called Elect that stand, and the other not that did fall?

2. Had Judas free will to believe and repent, as much as Peter? if he had, why did he not do as Peter did? or did Christ pray for Judas, as he did for Peter? Mark that.

3. When Satan entred Judas and Saul, had they power to resist and abandon him, or not? if they had, why was it so great a burden to them, that the one was mad, the other hanged himself?

4. If no sin be damnable, but unbelief belief against the Gospel, how came the Angels to be damned? and how were Sodom and Gomorrhah to be cast into Eternal Fire, if the sin against the first Covenant be only the cause of a temporal death and punishment, as is by you asserted? Ocellos vobis Jehovah aperito, &c.
